

The University of Toronto Journal of Jewish Thought (Online ISSN 2369-3517) is an annual peer-reviewed scholarly journal affiliated with the Anne Tanenbaum Centre for Jewish Studies at the University of Toronto.

Submissions and Editorial Correspondence

Following a distinctive theme, each volume of the University of Toronto Journal of Jewish Thought collects high-level scholarly research from across the interdisciplinary world of Jewish Studies. In addition to traditional scholarly work based on research and analysis, the journal publishes reviews of books and films, poetry, short fiction, photo-essays, political and literary criticism, and interviews with leading Jewish Studies scholars. The journal also considers genres such as memoir and reportage.
